

OMRON SCIENTIFIC TECHNOLOGIES, INC.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 16, 2009

Dear Valued Customer,

LaSalle Electric Supply is pleased to announce the partnership between OMRON STi and LaSalle Electric Supply Co. This newly formed partnership will insure the highest level of support; something companies have come to expect from both STi and LaSalle.

STi is the largest manufacturer of safety light curtains, safety scanners, safety mats and other safety related products in North America.

With the addition of our new LaSalle Automation Technology Center located in Shelby Township we are committed to making your transition to LaSalle Electric Supply seamless. We will be contacting all customers to introduce our account manager and safety application engineer.

If you have any questions please contact LaSalle Electric Supply Co.

Regards,

LaSalle Sales Team
